

Taylor House Bed and Breakfast
50 Burroughs St Boston, MA 02130
Directions FROM North

Hopefully, between the maps and these directions you should get from the Airport to Taylor House in about 20-25 minutes. It's about 8 miles.

From the North, you would be coming down Interstate 93 from NH or Route 1 from Maine. Take a right exit for Leverett Circle. This will take you on a new long off-ramp of I-93.

Follow the exit as it loops behind the Fleet Center(TD Bank North Center) and merges into a tunnel to Storrow Drive. When you come out of the tunnel, the Charles River will be on your right.

Stay in the center lane of Storrow drive to avoid a left lane only exit to Copley Square.

After passing that exit, get into your left lane.

Take the 2nd left exit to "Fenway/Rt. 1/Kenmore" which is after you go under the Mass Ave. bridge.

(Directions continue on the right.)

Stay to your left when curving around the exit and then you have about 200 yards to get into the right lane, follow the signs for Riverway/Rt. 1, bearing to your right on Boylston Street OUTBOUND.

On Boylston Street you will pass Sunoco on the left, Burger King on left, a Star Market on left, and Gulf on left

Pass the hospital area (Beth Israel, Children's Hospital, Dana Farber Cancer Institute)

After you see the Galleria Shops at Longwood Ave. you'll start heading down a slight hill to two sets of lights.

Can't make a left off of Jamaicaaway!!
 You could go past Burroughs and make a loop back to take a second right onto Burroughs St.
